01 INTRODUCTION

Kepricon Helix Studios (“we”, “us”, or “our”) operates the website www.kepricon.com and provides creative production and digital services including VFX, CGI, AI production, animation, roto, paint, compositing, matchmove, rotomation, creative technology, consulting and related services. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, protect and manage information when you visit our website, communicate with us, submit an enquiry, request a quotation, or otherwise interact with our services.

02 INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We may collect personal and non-personal information when you visit our website, communicate with us, submit an enquiry, request a quotation, participate in a project, or engage our services. This may include contact information, project-related information, technical information and information necessary to provide or administer our services.

03 INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE

You may voluntarily provide information such as your name, email address, phone number, company name, project details, requirements, schedules, budgets, references and other information included in enquiries, forms, emails, briefs or project communications.

04 AUTOMATICALLY COLLECTED INFORMATION

We may automatically collect technical and usage information when you access our website, including IP address, browser and device information, pages viewed, approximate visit duration, referring website, interaction data and analytics information. This information may be used to maintain website functionality, understand usage and improve our digital experience.

05 HOW WE USE INFORMATION

We may use information to respond to enquiries, prepare estimates and proposals, communicate about projects, deliver requested services, manage client relationships, improve our website and services, maintain security, send relevant communications where permitted, and comply with applicable legal or contractual obligations.

06 COOKIES & TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES

We may use cookies and similar technologies to support website functionality, understand traffic patterns, analyse website performance and improve user experience. Third-party analytics or service providers may also use cookies or similar technologies. You can manage or restrict cookies through your browser settings.

07 THIRD-PARTY SERVICES

We may use trusted third-party services to operate and improve our website and business, including analytics platforms, communication or email platforms, hosting services, cloud services, CRM tools, security services and other technology providers. These providers may process information as necessary to provide their services.

08 DATA SHARING & DISCLOSURE

We do not sell your personal information as a business practice. We may share information with trusted service providers, professional advisers, contractors, production partners or other parties where reasonably necessary to operate our website, deliver services, manage projects, maintain security, comply with legal obligations or protect our rights.

09 DATA SECURITY

We take reasonable administrative, technical and organisational measures designed to protect information from unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure, misuse or destruction. However, no internet transmission, electronic storage system or online service can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

10 DATA RETENTION

We retain information for as long as reasonably necessary for the purpose for which it was collected, including responding to enquiries, providing services, maintaining business and project records, resolving disputes, enforcing agreements and complying with legal or accounting requirements.

11 YOUR RIGHTS & CHOICES

Depending on applicable law, you may have rights or choices regarding your personal information, including requesting access, correction or deletion, asking about how information is used, or withdrawing certain forms of consent. Requests may be subject to identity verification, legal requirements and legitimate business exceptions.

12 CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

Our website and professional services are not intentionally directed toward children. We do not knowingly seek to collect personal information from children where prohibited by applicable law. If you believe a child has provided personal information to us without appropriate permission, please contact us.

13 THIRD-PARTY LINKS

Our website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms or services. Those third parties operate independently and may have their own privacy policies, terms and practices. We are not responsible for the privacy, security or content practices of third-party websites.

14 INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS

Depending on the services, technology providers and project arrangements used, information may be processed or stored in locations outside your state, region or country. Where applicable, we aim to use appropriate contractual, organisational or technical measures and comply with applicable data-protection requirements.

15 CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our services, technology, business practices, legal requirements or privacy practices. The revised version will be posted on this page with an updated date.
